- 24.9 Problems involving safety and health are to be discussed between the Safety Committee members prior to calling in inspectors from the Workers' Compensation Board. The Safety Committee shall be comprised of a representative of the Employer and of the Union, and in the event of disagreement, a mutually acceptable third party referee shall be appointed. Where precautionary measures, as agreed by the Safety Committee, have not been taken, an Employee's refusal to undertake such work will in no way be held against the Employee or prejudice employment with the Employer. Cost of Living Adjustment

30.2 The Employer agrees that for all Pay Groups, should the average Consumer Price Index for Vancouver (as determined by Article 30.3 below) indicate a rise in the cost of living of more than the negotiated wage increase for that year in the preceding 12 month period, then the wages for those positions will be increased by the amount the CPI rises above the negotiated wage increase for that year to the nearest one-tenth of a percent (0.1) It is understood that the observed 12-month period shall be August 1st to July 31st, that the CPI for July is published by mid-August, and that any wage increase will be effective September 1st, of that year.

Cost of Living Adjustment Calculation Formula Description

30.3 The average Consumer Price Index for Vancouver will be found by obtaining the index numbers from Stats Canada for each month, August to July inclusive, and averaging these numbers to find the average cost of goods in Vancouver for the observed 12 month period. Divide this result by the average of the previous year (obtained in the same manner), multiply the dividend by 100, and then subtract 100. The resultant is the difference in averaged costs between the two 12 month periods.

Example	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Average
98-99	111.0	110.6	110.2	110.4	110.1	110.1	110.2	110.2	110.4	111.2	111.2	111.7	110.6
99-00	112.1	111.8	112.4	111.9	111.7	111.8	111.6	111.8	112.8	112.9	113.3	113.8	112.3

The average rate for 1999-2000 was 112.3 for the 12-month period, and the average rate for 1998-1999 was 110.6 for the 12-month period

$\frac{112.3}{110.6} \times 100 - 100 = 1.537$ Following this formula, the difference is 1.537% (1.5%).
 The basket of items cost 1.5% more than it did in the year previous.

Appendix #2 Mutual Agreement

On a one on one basis, all applications of the “Mutual Agreement” procedure and its resolutions are without prejudice or precedent; resolutions do not supersede the intent and spirit in which this contract was written. Further, it is understood that the application of “Mutual Agreement” by either of the parties does not prevent or preclude a decision from becoming a grievable issue.

Where the term “mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union” appears in the body of the contract, it is understood that for the purposes of this agreement the procedure for the application of this term to the appropriate clauses shall be as follows:

- A) The Labour/Management Committee shall meet and, at this time, the Employer shall state and clarify the nature of their concern. The Union representatives on the committee (usually comprised of the Arts Club Theatre Shop Steward, and one other elected individual) shall consider and respond to the Employer’s request.
- B) In a timely manner the Labour/Management Committee agrees to notify the Union Office of the circumstances and intended resolution, as outlined and agreed in principle by the Labour/Management Committee in regards to the application of the “mutual agreement” provision.
- C) After the appropriate consultations and within a reasonable length of time, the Union will respond as to the acceptance or rejection of the proposal. The Union shall include the reasoning and rationale behind its decision.
- D) In instances that the Labour/Management Committee does not come to an agreeable resolution, the Employer may appeal directly to the Executive Board of the Union for application of this provision.

When time is of the essence and circumstances do not permit the possibility for the application of the procedure as outlined above, then the Employer may seek resolution as follows:

- E) If the period of forty-eight (48) hours or less is the limitation for consultation in regards to the application of the “Mutual Agreement between the Employer and the Union” provision, the Employer may directly refer the question to the Roster Representative or the Shop Steward (either of which, who must have at least one other member of the Union present at the discussion). Although it is recommended otherwise, without conference, these persons (being the Roster Representative or Shop Steward) at their individual discretion may choose to conclude a decision on behalf of the Union.
- F) Both the Employer and Union representative will then notify the Union as to the decision of both parties.
- G) Should no Union representative of the bargaining unit be readily available, the Employer can contact the Office of the Union and directly request a resolution. Both parties shall verify their decision with a written response at each party’s earliest convenience.

Where the term “mutual agreement between the Employer and the individual member” appears in the body of the contract, it is understood that for the purposes of the agreement the procedure for the application of this term to the appropriate clauses shall be as follows:

- 1) The individual member shall make a written application to the Employer stating the nature of their request. It is understood that each member shall give the adequate notification that is appropriate to the clauses found within the body of the contract.
- 2) In a timely manner the Employer agrees to respond to the Employee’s request including the reasoning and rationale for the decision.

- 3) If necessary the Employee may refer the decision of the Employer to the Union for clarification or investigation.

Where the term “mutual agreement between the parties” appears in the body of the contract, it is understood that for the purposes of this agreement the procedure for the application of this term to the appropriate clauses shall be as follows:

- i) The parties agree to meet and jointly determine a resolution appropriate to the applicable clauses.

Where appropriate and necessary both the Employer and the Union, including its members, agree to write responses to one and others queries. It is understood that in some instances verbal requests and responses may be engaged, it is advisable and prudent however, for each party to document both the nature of their concern and the outcome of these decisions as to provide a reference for future decisions of a similar nature or for the purposes of a grievance.

Appendix #3 Metro Vancouver Definition

Metro Vancouver shall be defined as:

Village of Anmore, Village of Belcarra, City of Burnaby, City of Coquitlam, Corporation of Delta, City of Langley, Township of Langley, Village of Lions Bay, District of Maple Ridge, City of New Westminster, City of North Vancouver, District of North Vancouver, District of Pitt Meadows, City of Port Coquitlam, City of Port Moody, City of Richmond, City of Surrey, City of Vancouver, District of West Vancouver, City of White Rock

Appendix # 4: Swing Shifts

Regular staff running crew are entitled to all show call shifts for their position but may ask for an additional regular weekly day off on show runs that involve six (6) working days per week. This extra day off will be considered a “Swing Shift” and be filled as per the collective agreement. Swing days off will be determined with management, in consideration of show needs, and two days off together cannot always be guaranteed. While management will endeavor to accommodate this practice for each position, having a swing cannot always be guaranteed.

All Swing shifts for an individual track will be given to the same Swing crew member when possible. A Swing crew member may perform multiple swing tracks for a given production or productions with considerations taken for workload and safety. If all shifts for an individual track cannot be filled, that series of Swing shifts may be broken into individual calls. If the calls cannot be filled it is expected that the regular crew member for that track/position will be scheduled to work the shift.

Each track/position for a show will have two training shifts consisting of a shadow shift to learn the track, and a reverse shadow shift to run the track under supervision. After two successful shifts a crew member may perform the track solo. In case of emergency, this requirement may be reduced provided stage management agrees, and the safety of the show is not compromised.

When a Swing crew member is called in to cover or shadow a track for an ill or absent crew member with less than 24 hours notice that shift will be paid at 1.5x. All subsequent shifts will be at the regular rate. The “scheduled day off” for Swing crew members will normally align with the dark day of the theatre, unless otherwise scheduled.

In addition to their track, the Head for backstage work generally includes responsibilities such as show reports, crew management, etc. When a Swing crew member is covering a Head, these responsibilities can either be performed by the Swing—in which case the Swing will be paid Head rate—or alternatively, those additional responsibilities can be reassigned to another crew member, in which case that member will be paid Head rate and the Swing will be paid the lower rate. There will be no circumstance, however, in which cover by a Swing will result in a reduction of the number of Head rates being paid.
